Ak-Chin hosts Arizona Indian Gaming Association Retreat

October 28-29, the Arizona Indian Gaming Association (AIGA) sponsored a Retreat for AIGA members and Arizona tribal leaders.

The two-day event was held at Ak-Chin Circle Entertainment Center Elements Event Center. Ten tribes were in attendance via in-person or zoomed in with virtual access.

Thursday's agenda included a Tribal Leaders meeting with AIGA and the Arizona Tribal Governments for Gaming (ATGG).

After the meeting concluded, a tour of the Ak-Chin Indian Community was provided, with stops at Ak-Chin Farms, Ak-Chin Industrial Park, Milton "Paul" Antone Park, Ak-Chin Language Program, and the San Juan Church.

The group seemed very impressed with the farm tour, as they asked many questions, which were fielded by Ak-Chin Farm Manager Damien Murrieta and former Farm Manager Steve Coester, on the crops and equipment.

"The Farm tour was one of the most requested 'to do' by Tribal Leaders once the

Veteran Programs and Parade sponsored by Harrah's

Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino SALUTE and HERO team members present a check for $3,000 to Diana Gregory Outreach Services. The funds will support the organization's Veggies for Vets program.

(MARICOPA, Ariz. – Nov. 2, 2021) – Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino, long-known for its corporate giving and community support, will once again honor Veterans and active military throughout the month of November. Events organized by Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino's HERO committee and the SALUTE Business Impact Group will create awareness and offer support for all community Veterans and active military as well as the organization's 30+ Veteran team members.

"America celebrates Veterans Day on November 11, but we believe it's important to celebrate Veterans and active military all year long," says

Robert Piwowar, Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino senior engagement specialist and SALUTE chairman. "In fact, we actively look to hire Veterans in our community. Service members who are looking to grow in their career in a supportive environment would find Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino a perfect fit."

The Harrah's Ak-Chin Casino SALUTE Business Impact Group (BIG) actively seeks to bring together team members who are Veterans and Veteran allies who embrace the core values of duty, honor and selfless service. The purpose is to cultivate a diverse and inclusive culture through grassroots efforts in assisting Veterans in a variety of ways including fundraisers, donation drives and of course volunteer opportunities. HERO is a team member-based volunteer program in which Harrah's staff and their families make noteworthy and visible contributions to the community by donating their time, skills, expertise and compassion to dozens of volunteer projects throughout the community.

Imagination stirred at Maricopa's 2021 State of the City

On October 21st, attendees of the 2021 State of the City for Maricopa were greeted with a mock version of the Chocolate Room from the 1971 film, Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory, as they walked into the entrance at Copper Sky Regional Park. Guests were encouraged to pick out samples of candy, dine on food provided by Helen's Kitchen and allow their childhood imaginations to take center stage. Each received a golden ticket, in the form of an event logoed mug, and a Maricopa Bar.

The host of the event, Luis Villa, Communications Coordinator for City of Maricopa, welcomed the audience and led the event through the opening Pledge of Allegiance and Presentation of Colors by Boy Scout Troop 389. Following was the National Anthem sung by Jiselle Diaz. Many distinguished guests were thanked for attending including Ak-Chin Indian Community's Vice Chair Lemuel Vincent and Councilmember Lisa Garcia. Arizona State Senator Vince Leech and Mayor of Casa Grande Craig McFarland were also in attendance.

After much build-up, Mayor Christian Price was introduced as a bell sounded. And, just like Gene Wilder made his entrance in the movie, Mayor Price donned a cane and made his way up to the stage in a similar fashion, minus the forward roll.

Maricopa's mayor began his speech with a tribute to his grandfather who always carried a bag of candy with him and whom Mayor Price remembers being a supporter of education and someone that could bring both sides of politics together. The event's theme of "Pure Imagination" was created with this in mind.

Continuing with the concept of anything being possible and following the Willy Wonka & the Chocolate Factory theme, 5 lucky attendees found golden tickets under their seats and received an oversized lollipop from the mayor. Later in the evening, dancers from Legacy Traditional School performed the Oompa Loompa song in costume.

Mayor Price started speaking about the more serious topics of housing, infrastructure and businesses with the underlying idea that Maricopa has "limitless opportunities" and the city "can be anything we dream it to be."

The growth of the city of Maricopa was highlighted. An updated projected census number of over 70,000 was presented, which was over 15,000 more residents than reported by the 2020 U.S. Census number. According to Mayor Price, housing and building projects continue to be a big pull for new residents and businesses looking at the city as a location. The toll from the Great Recession and recent covid-19 pandemic were acknowledged as significant challenges that companies have had to overcome.

Another main discussion point was State Route 347 and the ongoing communication with all stakeholders involved. According to Mayor Price, key leaders at Gila River Indian Community have indicated that this road is among their top priorities for roadwork in the near future. Other upcoming and ongoing projects include the East-West Corridor, the beautification projects on John Wayne Parkway, the widening of SR 238 and the pedestrian bridge that will connect W. Mercado St. to N. Maricopa Rd.

Also in the spotlight was the 1.68 million square feet of retail and commercial space that has been added to the City of Maricopa. Businesses like the new Exceptional Hospital, scheduled to open mid-2022, were among a growing list of soon-to-be available options that will be offered within city limits.

Caregiver Appreciation Month

*It's said that there are four kinds of people in the world:
those who have been caregivers, those who are currently caregivers, those who will be caregivers, and those who will need caregivers.*

*There should be a fifth on the list:
Those who don't realize they have begun the caregiver journey – and their ranks are growing daily.*

“They are helping Mom balance her checkbook, phoning Dad every morning to make sure he takes his cholesterol-lowering, diabetes, and arthritis medications, picking up groceries for a disabled neighbor – all sorts of things. They don’t self-identify as caregivers because they are ‘just’ being a good daughter or son or neighbor,” says, Amy Goyer, AARP’s caregiving expert and author of the recently published Juggling Work & Caregiving.

November is Caregiver Appreciation month. Celebrated every November, National Family Caregivers Month (NFCM) is a time to recognize and honor family caregivers across the country. It offers an opportunity to raise awareness of caregiving issues, educate communities, and increase support for caregivers.

In the past we have tried to share informative training topics and stress reduction techniques to show our appreciation and honor our communities’ caregivers.

We were unable to do so in person in 2020 but plan for a couple of small gatherings this November for unpaid Caregivers. We will share information, learn about the importance of self-care, why it’s important for both the caregiver and the receiver, and honor them for their commitment to family, their compassionate heart, and their willingness to sacrifice their own wants and needs to take care of another.

If you are an unpaid family caregiver currently enrolled in our Caregiver program you will be receiving a special invitation to join us for “The Heart of a Caregiver” If you or someone you know is an unpaid family caregiver or grandparent raising grandchildren we would love to support you. Contact us here at the Elder center and let’s get you enrolled.

announcement was made that Ak-Chin would be the site of the retreat.” Chairman Miguel shared. “Tribal Leaders have always wanted to tour the Farms, even prior to the retreat. Some have actually toured the Farms with their respective Tribal Councils.”

Later that evening, attendees and their guests were invited to enjoy apps on the lawn outside Ak-Chin Circle Entertainment Center as they viewed the Arizona Cardinals vs Green Bay Packers game on the outdoor jumbotron.

Friday began with a breakfast, followed by an opening prayer and song by the Ak-Chin Language Program. Next, was keynote speaker Mike Candrea, former head softball coach for University of Arizona and USA Women’s National Softball Team.

Candrea, who was a last-minute substitution provided a great speech about teambuilding, which he obviously knows much about, being the all-time winningest coach in college softball history with 1,674 wins, leading Arizona softball to eight national championships and coaching US women’s national softball teams when Team USA won gold in 2004 and silver in 2008.

“I’m one of those guys that have been able to follow my dream, my passion.” Candrea began, “I always tell people I never worked a day in my life because I’m doing what I love to do and that’s to coach young people, to watch them grow, to become part of their lives. I used to think I’d coach them for four years and they would leave me, but they never leave me.”

Coach Candrea shared his goals for developing a high character team, which included generating a buy-in for the players, building stable relationships on trust, mutual respect and honesty, surrounding yourself with people that are better than you, being resilient and teaching how to fail forward. He also shared, “three things that I’ve always wanted to live by... be competent, be consistent and caring about people.”

After Candrea spoke, he was honored with a handmade basket on behalf of AIGA.

The Retreat continued with an Overview of the 2021 Amended Tribal-State Gaming Compacts and What are the New Games, followed by comments and a demonstration of the new games offered at Harrah’s.

There was also a presentation on legislation and what tribes need to do to continue to protect what is currently in place as far as the compacts. Presentations were given on Polling and New World of Tribal Gaming – Looking Ahead.

Chairman Miguel, who is also the President of the ATGG added, “The Arizona Indian Gaming Association (AIGA) was created by former Tribal Leaders and staff 20 plus years ago to become the one voice for all tribes in Arizona for gaming. We continue to acknowledge, recognize and support their direction and efforts as we move forward. We will continue to work diligently to protect the integrity of Tribal Gaming as we help support one another in providing opportunity for our people.”

Community departments rallied together to provide some safe, spooky holiday fun, while getting out and about to show the community their support.

A Halloween Fest, that included a department Trunk-or-Treat, food vendors and costume contest got underway on Friday, October 29, in conjunction with the Ak-Chin Youth Council Virtual Halloween Special.

The Halloween Fest, set up in the ballfields at Milton "Paul" Antone Memorial Park, had a great turn-out.

There were about a dozen departments set up in full costume to hand out treats to the line of trick-or-treaters who steadily made their way down the field.

Food vendors provided satisfying tastes with green chili/corn tamales, pickle slushies, drinks and candy apples.

The evening ended with a Costume Contest just as the chilly night set in.

Sanitation/Public Works go full Pixar for the Trunk-or-Treat.

The Community gathers at the park, making their stops along the candy route.

This little Minnie Mouse says Trick-r-Treat!

To close the speech, event organizers created a nod to the signature moment in the 1970's film when Willy Wonka and Charlie enter the elevator and bust through the ceiling of the factory.

Mayor Price's version was entering a makeshift platform on a forklift with the iconic Great Glass Elevator shape on the front. He was raised as high as the fork lift could take him and received enthusiastic applause.

The Caring House has received an update from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid (CMS) Five-Star Quality Rating System. In Overall Quality, TCH has moved up to 4 stars from the previous 3 star rating. In the CMS rating for Staffing, TCH remains at 5 stars. This pertains to hours of nursing care provided to each resident. In the Quality Measures rating, TCH has improved to 5 stars from 4 stars.

The Quality Measures rating uses data from long-stay and short-stay residents on a range of high-impact clinical measures such as falls, UTIs, etc., so this rating reflects quality of care for residents. Finally, TCH's Health Inspection rating has improved to 2 stars from the previous 1 star rating as a result of the 2016 survey dropping out of CMS' rating system, and the three most recent health surveys having been positive. Nursing homes with a 4 star Overall rating are considered to have above average quality.

The TCH staff has achieved significant measurable improvements during the COVID-19 pandemic, which is quite a feat and a testament to the leadership and commitment of all staff.

Little Wrestlers Pack a Big Punch

On the Saturday night before Halloween, eager crowds gathered outside Ak-Chin Entertainment Circle to witness the Extreme Dwarffanators Tour 2K21's "Baddest Lil Show", as part of the Halloween Bash. Centered in the middle of the crowd was a mini wrestling ring foreshadowing the evening ahead. After much anticipation, the first two wrestlers of the night entered the ring. Each wrestler was escorted by a security guard through a tunnel of fans before their match started.

First to battle were wrestlers "Boom Ba" and "Lumber Jack". Each had their groups of fans cheering them on. The referee would chime in periodically when one opponent had the other pinned. But before he could get to the count of three the energetic athlete would bounce back up. Other wrestler names included "Good Guy", "Tucker", "Mini Fashion" and more.

Attendees were delighted with a plethora of classic moves including the shoulder block takedown, the fireman's carry and the jackknife splash. Many of the finishing maneuvers included the diving body slam by which a wrestler climbs to the top rope in the corner of the ring and flies front first, slamming onto their opponent.

After many of the wrestlers had battled and victors were proclaimed, the last match of the evening began with the pulsing sound of sirens. Chairman Robert Miguel, stage name "Rowdy Roddy Piper Miguel", along with battle partner "Tucker" arrived on top of the Ak-Chin Fire Department firetruck.

Once they had entered the ring, their opponents, Big Rob with "Boom Ba", arrived in the same fashion and the match began.

Soon a battle royal broke out and all wrestlers entered the ring. Needless to say, fans of all ages were treated to a very entertaining exhibition of athletic talents of all sizes.

In addition to the wrestling, there were jumping houses, vendors and a costume contest for the crowd to enjoy. The band, Outliers, also performed.

"Mini Fashion" ignites the night to intimidate opponents.
