15th Annual Ak-Chin Masik Tas begins with spiritual and traditional events

Story by R. Peters

Over the first weekend of December, Ak-Chin Indian Community kicked off the 2022 Masik Tas “birthday” celebration, with a spiritual run and traditional games.

Saturday, December 3, 2022, the Ak-Chin Youth Council organized a spiritual run. The cold and rainy day did not keep the runners at bay, as eighteen came out to participate. Before the run, a meeting was held for all interested participants to share the significance and responsibilities involved for the spiritual runner.

“The main purpose for the run was to bless the grounds of the Community, and to carry prayers on behalf of everyone in the Community.” Joseph Davis, Ak-Chin Youth Council Coordinator shared.

They met up before sunrise to start off the relay-style run, which was about 10 miles long, staggered along the route every ¼ mile. Some runners opted to run longer distances, and took breaks when needed. The route started at White and Parker/Peters and Nall Roads and ended at the Old Vaila Site. Runners were provided breakfast and Gabriel Lopez provided a blessing, fanning off each runner before they began their journey.

Once the runners made their way to the finish, they walked around in a closing circle. “Words of encouragement and gratitude for the participants were shared by myself, and Mr. Lopez.” said Joseph. “We also asked Antonio “Gohk” Davis to share some words with everyone. After the final blessing, each runner was given a shell necklace adorned with the Ak-Chin Tribal Seal, courtesy of the Language Department.”

The rain on Saturday, flooded the fields which were prepped for the Songivu’l and Toka games, set up south of the Ak-Chin Recreation and east of the Ak-Chin Cultural and Language building, but it did not stop the five young men, ten women’s teams and their fans from coming out.

Participants came from near and far to enjoy a day of traditional games. Those coming from down south were delayed due to the roads and washes flooding over.

The Songivu’l games were set up on a 150-foot path lined with two cones on opposite ends, representing the starting point and halfway point.

“The main objective of the game is fairly simple.” Joseph began, “the songivu’l (game piece) is a wooden ball roughly the size of a baseball or tennis ball. The songivu’l is kicked or flicked by the player while they run from the starting cone, all the way to the second cone. The player and songivu’l then

Community Christmas Events

Story and photos by Runner Staff

As the Christmas season brings a sense of warmth and cheer over the community, families and friends gather to enjoy all the holiday festivities the Ak-Chin community very graciously provides. Two Christmas events were happening on the very special night of December 1st.

Christmas in the Village had events for kids of all ages, at the Him-Dak art building. Children started by grabbing a cup of hot cocoa topped with marshmallows to keep them warm while they decorated colorful Christmas cookies.

Once they were done they were able to write Christmas wishes on their way to the crafts room. There were also Christmas movies and music playing in the background. The fun didn’t end as the children took a hayride to Milton Paul Antone Park where they met Santa for the tree lighting ceremony.

8-year-old Serenity said the hay ride was her, “favorite” part because it was different from riding in a normal car. The children and their families joined other members of the community to enjoy dinner and take photos with Santa.

These young ladies are all smiles with Santa during his visit to the Ak-Chin Community on December 1.

Harrah’s Ak-Chin participated in the 2022 Arizona Native Edible Experience

On November 19, 2022 during the Arizona Native Edible Experience, indigenous chefs throughout Arizona showed up to share their dishes, incorporating an ancestral ingredient in a contemporary dish. Chefs Doug and Andrew participated, representing both the Harrah’s Ak-Chin Casino and the Ak-Chin Indian Community. Chefs Doug and Andrew are graduates of the Harrah’s Development System (HDS), which is a program designed to develop leaders within the Ak-Chin Indian Community by offering job skills training and leadership development opportunities to selected Ak-Chin tribal members for the purpose of acquiring the knowledge and skills necessary to qualify for management or key positions within Harrah’s Ak-Chin Casino.

The dish provided by Chefs Doug and Andrew was a succotash with a prickly pear barbecued quail leg. Guests, and even fellow chefs visited their table, returning for seconds, expressing how delicious their dish was. At the end of the night, Doug and Andrew received well-deserved compliments and spotlights. The staff let the chefs know their dish was a hit!

Both chefs did a great job identifying their ancestral ingredients, incorporating other ingredients to make a beautifully plated and tasty dish.

Community Elders gather for Christmas meal

Story and photos by T. Marshburn

The Ak-Chin Elder Christmas party has always been a grand event and this year was no different.

On December 8, 2022, after two very difficult years of living through isolation, and the loss of precious loved ones due to the Covid-19 pandemic, the Ak-Chin Elders had their first holiday gathering.

Since Covid, Ak-Chin Elder staff have been very mindful in maintaining a safe environment by keeping gatherings to a minimum. Even though it was held on a smaller scale, staff and elders in attendance were happy about the turn out.

Director, Leslie Carlyle-Burnett welcomed the elders, "What a pleasure it is to see all of you. It has been a long time coming. This is the first time we have had a gathering since the Covid-19 pandemic."

Staff shared that post-Covid they have not had many elders return to the elder center and they miss seeing their faces, as staff says they went from seeing about 20 elders a day to about 6. So, it was extremely welcoming to see a total of 30 elders at the Christmas gathering.

The gathering was held at the Ak-Chin Circle Elements ballroom where the elders watched the movie Home Alone and shared a meal that included, beef tips, BBQ chicken, salad, seasoned potatoes, and wild rice.

Leslie also shared how thankful she and the elder staff are to have and serve the elders. "We are truly appreciative of our roles and responsibilities at the Elder Center in serving the Ak-Chin Indian Community elders. We are here for you. If we cannot help you we will certainly find someone or other resources that can help you."

The elders received a $100.00 gift card at the gathering that can be used at Sam's Club or Walmart.

In addition, the elders received a gift bag containing other goodies. The highlight of the day was an unexpected visit from Santa Claus.

Special thanks was given to the Museum and the Runner for providing special gifts to the elders.

Ak-Chin Elder staff hope this is the start of more elders joining back in on all the fun they have at the Elder Center. "On behalf of the Elder Center staff, we wish all of you and your families a Merry and Blessed Christmas."

Ak-Chin Masik Tas All-Indian Elder Chair Volleyball Tournament

Over 270 elders from other tribal communities across Arizona and two from California came to the Ak-Chin Indian Community to participate in the Recreation's first Masik Tas Elder Chair Volleyball Tournament.

Our annual elder chair volleyball tournaments had to be put on hold for a while, after being sidelined by the pandemic. Everyone was excited to be coming back to our community and playing once again. All the teams had so much fun competing and cheering each other on. Between points, we watched elders laughing over the extreme saves players made or how far the ball traveled out of bounds. We enjoyed seeing and meeting new elders from other communities; providing them with a great experience is our department goal. 28 chair volleyball teams bumped, served and spiked their way to victory. When the last serve of the chair volleyball tournament was made the top three teams took home awards by Gobal Rez Ball Affiliated and each registered player earned a participant t-shirt.

Championship team, Pala Turtles from the Pala Band of Mission Indians, Tribal Secretary shared on behalf of her tribe, "Our Pala Turtles had a wonderful time playing in the Masik Tas Elder Chair Volleyball Tournament. We appreciate your hospitality. We thank the Tribal Council Members: Robert Miguel, Chairman; Lemuel Vincent, Vice-Chairman; Delia Carlyle, Council Member; Lisa Garcia, Council Member; Octavio Machado,

Holiday Fire Safety

1,650 Americans are injured every year by fires that occur during the holiday season.
There are some simple life-saving steps you can take to reduce the chance of becoming one of those fire casualty statistics.

Preventing Christmas Tree Fires

Selecting a Tree for the Holiday

Needles on fresh trees should be green and hard to pull back from the branches, and the needle should not break if the tree has been freshly cut. The trunk should be sticky to the touch. Old trees can be identified by bouncing the tree trunk on the ground. If many needles fall off, the tree has been cut too long, has probably dried out, and is a fire hazard.

Caring for Your Tree

Do not place your tree close to a heat source such as a heat vent.
The heat will dry out the tree, causing it to be more easily ignited by heat, flame or sparks.
Be careful not to drop or flick cigarette ashes near a tree. Do not put your live tree up too early or leave it up for longer than two weeks. Keep the tree stand filled with water at all times.

Disposing of Your Tree

Never put tree branches or needles in a fireplace, wood burning stove or fire pit.

When the tree becomes dry, discard it promptly.

The Community has roll off dumpsters located throughout the subdivisions to dispose of your trees. If you are an Elder just place the tree by the curb and the Sanitation Department will pick it up for you.

Holiday Lights Maintain Your Holiday Lights

Inspect holiday lights
each year for frayed wires, bare spots, gaps in the insulation, broken or cracked sockets, and excessive kinking or wear before putting them up. Use only lighting listed by an approved testing laboratory.

Do Not Overload Electrical Outlets

Do not link more than three light strands,
unless the directions
indicate it is safe.
Connect strings of lights
to an extension cord before plugging the cord into the outlet. Make sure to periodically check the wires - they should not be warm to the touch. Do Not Leave Holiday Lights
on Unattended!

Holiday Decorations Use Only Nonflammable Decorations

All decorations should be nonflammable or flame-retardant and placed away from heat vents.

Never Put Wrapping Paper in a Fireplace or Firepit

It can throw off dangerous sparks and produce a chemical buildup that could cause an explosion.

Artificial Christmas Trees

If you are using a metallic or artificial tree,
make sure it is flame retardant.

Candle Care Avoid Using Lit Candles

If you do use them, make sure they are in stable holders and place them where they cannot be easily knocked down.
Never leave the house or go to bed when there are candles burning.

Never Put Lit Candles on a Tree

Do not go near a Christmas tree with an open flame - candles,
lighters or matches.
Finally, as in every season, have working smoke alarms installed on every level of your home, test them
monthly and keep them clean and equipped with fresh batteries at all times. Know when and how to call for help (dial 911). And remember to practice your home escape plan.

If you have any questions please contact Fire Marshal Jon at 520-568-1316.

have to go around this cone counterclockwise and make their way back to the original starting cone.” The first player to cross the starting line with their game piece wins.”

Joseph shared that the game can be played one against one, or in teams of 2-4. He also pointed out a key detail, “the game is played barefoot, which makes it a lot more difficult. It definitely doesn’t feel too good on the toes if you kick the game piece incorrectly.”

He goes on to share more history of Songivu’l. “The game originated during the days of the pilgrimages that O’odham men would make to the ocean. Running in a group and kicking a songivu’l would help them keep pace with one another, and it would keep your mind occupied during the journey (similarly the same concept as when you kick a rock or a can while you’re taking a walk down the road).”

“Over time as the practice of running to the ocean became scarce, Songivu’l developed into a competition style game, where men from all over O’odham territory would meet to play. Their fields would stretch miles at a time, with the same goal of making it to a certain point and back before the opposing team could.”

"High stakes bets were involved such as livestock, basketry, and even wives or children in some cases. That brings us to modern day, where the field is significantly smaller, and the bets are not as extreme.”

Top winners in Songivu’l earned bragging rights and gift baskets containing various snacks and tools: Davin Garcia – 1st Place Draven Soliz – 2nd Place Zachary Garcia – 3rd Place

Joseph also shared, “The Ak-Chin Youth Council would like to thank all of our participants and volunteers throughout the weekend for all of your contributions. We would also like to thank all the departments that helped us out as well. These events are something we hope to continue going forward to help celebrate Masik Tas here in the community. We’d like to wish everyone a Happy Holiday, and a blessed remainder of 2022.”

“Hopefully over the next few years Songivu’l, along with Toka and the ceremonial practice of Spiritual Running, can continue to gain popularity and us as O’odham can continue to take care of, and respect these things and everything that comes along with them.

They’re just a small sliver of our O’odham Himdag but they are just as important as all other aspects of our culture.”

Ak-Chin Youth Council Masik Tas Celebration

Story and photos by Runner Staff

The Ak-Chin Youth Council Masik Tas Celebration began at 1pm on a sunny Sunday afternoon, December 11, 2022. The event included contests for wood chopping, popover making, menudo cooking, as well as youth and adult dancing.

The wood chopping was first in the contests and the wood pieces were used for the fires for popovers, menudo and to warm attendees later in the night. During the event, the crowd was also treated to delicious food and crafts from local vendors and musical rhythms from the bands Project Kumbia and Ak-Chin Mumsigo.

The traditional game of Toka, is played similar to field hockey, without helmets, gloves or padding. There are no referees, only line judges to ensure a goal is verified.

The only equipment needed is an usaga (handmade stick), made from a mesquite branch that is picked and cut, then roasted, carved and stripped and then dried in the sun to strengthen. The usaga is used to hit or pass the 'ola, which is similar to a puck, made of two short pieces of mesquite tied together with string, or deer guts.

The game is played when two teams meet up in the middle of the field, then match up players based on numbers and positions. They then face the direction of their goal and wait for the 'ola to be thrown in the middle. Fields can be small or large, some games are held in a fenced area, while others are totally open with only a goal to pass.

Once the 'ola is thrown in the middle of the group, both sides work to gain control by blocking and trapping the other teams usaga, while trying to pass it to their runners who are set up outside, ready to partner up down the field running and hitting the 'ola towards their goal.

After the 'ola crosses the goal it must then be picked up in order to score. Teams will do whatever is necessary to keep their opponent from passing the goal and picking up the 'ola to score.

Toka has gained popularity over the past 10 years and has been reborn with the younger women encouraged to play, as a way to keep the tradition going and a way to reconnect one another with their sister tribes and players. Many teams are multi-generational.

S-KUBJUV JU:DAM #LLC

It is one of the only games where you can see granddaughters playing with grandmothers.

Ak-Chin Language program along with the young ladies of Ak-Chin Youth Council coordinated this year's Toka tournament, which brought out O'odham women of all ages and abilities to enjoy a fun day of competitive play.

Since the original field was flooded, the coordinators looked for other options, and finally decided on the not so flooded field next to the flooded field. There were many slips, falls and muddy mishaps on the field, and there was also lots of laughter, sportsmanship and comraderie reflected as well.

At times, it was extremely difficult to see the 'ola when it got stuck in the mud or slapped in the puddles of water.

After much effort and a lot of splashing and dashing around in the mud, the 'ola was moved from one side of the field to the other. Although, it was a bit more difficult running in the mud, eventually teams moved the 'ola down the field and scored.

Ak-Chin entered a new team this year, S-kubjuv Ju:dam, in honor of the late Holly Antone, who loved to play the game. Although some had not played for quite some time, they were all-in for the opportunity to play for their beloved sister "Holly Bear".

After it was all over, there were many muddy faces and feet, bruises and scrapes to remember the day, along with the utmost respect to all players for braving the flooded roads and fields to play these traditional games once played by their ancestors.

"Thank you so much for the warm hospitality. The ladies had so much fun. We had a great time. We truly appreciated the lunch as we were on a budget. Thank you, Ali Chugk Toka Team"

The Little Big Things...or...

Watch for the little things that may be bigger than you think! Please read the Label! MARS IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE MOON. December 7, 2022, 7:20 pm, Arizona time

The Moon is in fact a lot smaller than the planet Mars. This comparison also applies to the small print on Pesticide labels that can be very small, but also very, very big as important to read.

Safety precautions, proper use of protective equipment (such as rubber gloves and or goggles), and other statements helps to ensure that these products are used safely and effectively. Cleaning during the holiday season poses special challenges with decorations in and around your home. Be sure to read the labels to know which type of products are being used.

Cleaning products that are generally soaps and detergents are used to clean surfaces such as floors, counter tops and clothing to remove large particles of food and drink residues. These soaps and detergents may generally claim cleaning effectiveness and references "cleaning and the removal", but do not generally claim killing any organisms.

If the label states that it "kills" surface organisms such as germs (viruses and bacteria); it is a pesticide, and it must have an EPA registration number on the product label. It also must state "Keep out of Reach of Children" as this is a key small piece of important information that enables us to safely and properly use these products as intended. All EPA registered pesticides are deemed effective by USEPA if used according to label directions.

The larger print is often used for the Branding and Marketing of a product to attract the attention of the consumer. Any company will use this technique in its marketing efforts to get you to buy. In the unregulated markets anything can go (unless its fraudulent) and usually does (buyer beware!).

Products that make pesticidal claims (such as "kills") must come under the US EPA testing and evaluations of environmental impact before it can be marketed. This ensures that a person following the label will provide control of pests in a manner that will impact you and your family in the least significant manner. Using minimal pesticides to control pests is referred Please note, if the label claims "kills", look for the EPA registration number on the Label as pictured below on the Lysol aerosol container: Pesticidal Claims ..... Kills 99.9%....

The Registration number above is showing that the claim has documentation and that EPA has approved the Label that is printed on the product container. EPA Registration numbers verifies this label and use is the Law.

We wish that your family festivities of Masik Tas, Christmas and the coming New Year will be enjoyable, safe and healthy for all. Ak-Chin Indian Community - Environmental Programs
